LOVE IT, LIVE IT

Teddington is conveniently located in the London Borough of Richmond, South-West London, near the majestic River Thames with the open landscape of Bushy Park to the South. The area is predominantly residential and popular with its fashionable high street and riverside pubs and clubs, where leisure is key. Not surprisingly Teddington has again been voted as Britain's most desirable residential area by the Sunday Times in March 2021, priding itself between practical and aspirational. All the essentials can be found close by, including: supermarkets, cafes, independent stores and bakeries, "and the best nature in London" in the beloved Bushy Park.

THE SUNDAY TIMES

Teddington was named the best place to live in London by The Sunday Times in March 2021.

The neighbourhood, located just outside Richmond, is referred to as the "sweet spot between practical and aspirational" in The Times of London article.

South-west facing elevation showing the Lychborough's corner position with entrance porches on Blandford Road and off road parking. This home includes a study and separate living room. The intricate brick fascia details, corner stones and scalloped sills accentuate this individual, family home.

South-east elevation from Blandford Road of Chalfont and Ferndown.
These two homes feature open plan family, kitchen, dining and living areas.
The principal bedroom in each property has an en-suite and dressing room on the top floor.
